

Characteristics of a More Able and Talent Student in Drama

- ★ Perceptive of other people and situations, shows an emotional understanding of others and is able to communicate this.
- ★ Expresses knowledge of the outside world and the human condition.
- ★ High level of concentration, self-discipline, original creative thought and humour.
- ★ Confident in performance, with strong vocal and physical skills
- ★ Works co-operatively, generously and creatively as part of a team
- ★ Strong analytical skills in both improvisation and text.

How we support More Able and Talent Students in Drama

- ★ Use of the Aim Higher booklet
- ★ Challenge opportunities in lessons
- ★ Accessing leadership roles in group work – directing the group
- ★ Individual coaching to challenge students
- ★ Challenge activities through Show My Homework
- ★ Arts Award offered at KS4
- ★ Promotion of Work Experience opportunities in theatres and online career fairs
- ★ Enrichment opportunities, such as workshops and school productions

How you can support More Able and Talent Students at home

- ★ Encourage your child to carry out activities from the Aim Higher Booklet
- ★ Watch theatre. This can either be live or online
- ★ Research different careers in the theatre
- ★ Get involved with external drama groups
- ★ Encourage your child to engage with the Challenge activities in class and for homework