Prisoners of Geography: Tim Marshall

Factfulness: Hans Rosling

Independent Task (to be submitted):

Task 1: Read the first chapter of disasters by choice. Create a mind map for all the reasons why Haiti's vulnerability is a result of multiple factors.

Task 2: Choose one of the Royal Holloway Lectures. Create an overview of the lecture on one side of A4 to summarise the key points made by the speaker.

Task 3: In your regeneration topic you need to complete research on your local place and how it is changing. Research where new housing is being planned/built for Nailsea. Why is the new housing needed? Which groups of people will be pleased this is going ahead, which groups of people will be against the new housing? Research what a joint Spatial Plan (JSP) is and have a look at the plan for North Somerset.

Aim Higher Task:

This link will take you to a series of tasks on China's belt and road initiative: A-Level China Belt and Road.pptx

Follow the links and instructions to build up a resource booklet on what this initiative is about and how it transforms China into a superpower.

DEADLINE FOR TRANSITION TASK: Please bring to your first lesson in September.
