

LEARNING JOURNEY Enterprise

University Courses stemming from these subjects can encompass a range of disciplines, including Industrial Design, Mechanical Engineering, Food Science, Fashion Design, Computer Science, and more, providing diverse career pathways for students.

Career Pathways stemming from these subjects can lead to roles in industries such as product design, mechanical engineering, food science, fashion design, computer science, and various other fields, offering a wide array of professional opportunities for graduates.

Studying Enterprise equips students with a versatile skill set spanning Design, Engineering, Textiles, Food and Nutrition, and ICT, fostering innovation, teamwork and critical thinking, and preparing them for dynamic careers in a wide range of industries.